STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

The Gospel today is sometimes called “the Gospel in miniature” because it so concisely sums up the Gospel message. In even more condensed form, “God loved...God gave…” is the paradigm for stewardship - we give because we love.

Good News: The Diocesan Centennial Campaign was very successful, with Fatima receiving in pledges (over a five year period) over 2 million dollars. Thirty percent of our goal of $1,170,000.00 will be returned to Fatima; thereafter fifty percent of what is collected will eventually be returned to us.

Bad News: Since the Campaign, our weekly collections are substantially lower. This is understandable and to be expected. This is a friendly reminder to do what you can to keep our weekly operation budget running smoothly. Online giving is a wonderful way to make sure you are up to date. Thanks, Fr. Russo.

JUNE 13TH - 100th Anniversary of The 2nd Apparition of Our Lady of Fatima

In Lucia’s own words: As soon as Jacinta, Francisco and I had finished praying the Rosary, with a number of other people who were present, we saw once more the flash reflecting the light which was approaching (which we called lightning.) The next moment, Our Lady was there on the holmoak, exactly the same as in May.

“What do you want of me?” I asked. “I wish you to come here on the 13th of next month, to pray the Rosary every day, and to learn to read. Later, I will tell you what I want.”

I asked for the cure of a sick person. “If he is converted, he will be cured during the year.”

“I would like to ask you to take us to heaven.” “Yes, I will take Jacinta and Francisco soon. But you are to stay here some time longer. Jesus wishes to make use of you to make me known and loved. He wants to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart.”

“Am I to stay here alone?” I asked, sadly. “No, my daughter. Are you suffering a great deal? Don’t lose heart. I will never forsake you. My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge and the way that will lead you to God.”

As Our Lady spoke these last words, she opened her hands and for the second time, she communicated to us the rays of that same immense light. We saw ourselves in this light, as it were, immersed in God. Jacinta and Francisco seemed to be in that part of the light which rose towards heaven, and I in that which was poured out on the earth. In front of the palm of Our Lady’s right hand was a heart encircled by thorns which pierced it. We understood that this was the Immaculate Heart of Mary, outraged by the sins of humanity, and seeking reparation.

Our Lady had revealed a secret to us in June. At the time, Our Lady did not tell us to keep it secret, but we felt moved to do so by God.

Blessed Antonia Maria Verna

Antonia early felt a call to religious life, and as a teenager began caring for and catechizing children in her village. Attended the Institute in San Giorgio Canavese, simultaneously a student and a teacher. In 1806, she and several companions formed a group that would become the Institute of the Sisters of Charity of the Immaculate Conception of Ivrea, dedicated to teaching and catechizing children, and home care for the sick; in 1819 they opened their first home, on Marcy 7, 1828, King Charles Felix gave secular approval, and on June 10, 1828 her bishop gave his approval. Antonio spent the rest of her life, and ruined her health, in leading, promoting and expanding the Institute.

Born: June 12, 1773 in Pasquaro di Rivarolo Canavese, Turin, Italy
Died: December 25, 1838 in Pasquaro di Rivarolo Canavese, Turin, Italy of natural causes
Beatified: October 2, 2011 by Pope Benedict XVI

Saint Anthony of Padua

Anthony’s wealthy family wanted him to be a great nobleman, but for the sake of Christ he became a poor Franciscan Priest. When the remains of Saint Berard and his companions, the first Franciscan martyrs, were brought to be buried in his church, Anthony was moved to leave his order, enter the Friars Minor, and go to Morocco to evangelize. Shipwrecked at Sicily, he joined some other brothers who were going to the church in Portuncula. Lived in a cave at San Paolo leaving only to attend Mass and sweep the nearby monastery. One day when a scheduled speaker failed to appear, the brothers pressed him into speaking. He impressed them so that he was thereafter constantly travelling, evangelizing, preaching, and teaching theology through Italy and France.

A gifted speaker, he attracted crowds everywhere he went, speaking in multiple tongues; legend says that even the fish loved to listen. Miracle worker. One of the most beloved of saints, his images and statues are found everywhere - though none of them portray him as a heavy-set man, which some reports claim he was. Proclaimed a Doctor of the Church on January 16, 1946.

One source of the well-known patronage for the recovery of lost objects comes from a legend that, long after Anthony’s death, his old prayer book was kept as a treasured relic, and one day it disappeared. People prayed for help in finding the lost item, a novice found it and returned it; he later admitted that he had “borrowed” the book and returned it after receiving a vision of an angry Anthony.

Born: 1195 at Lisbon, Portugal
Died: June 13, 1231 of natural causes

She fought back; when he realized he would fail and she would identify him, the attacker killed Albertina; she is considered a martyr in the defense of chastity.

Born: April 11, 1919 in Sao Luis, Imarui, Santa Catarina, Brazil
Died: stabbed in the heart with a pen knife during a rape attempt on June 15, 1931 in Sao Luis, Imarui, Santa Catarina, Brazil

FORMED in June: Something Special for our Dads

Did you know that a father’s regular church attendance has the greatest influence on the future church attendance of his children (Swiss Church Study 1994)? Did you know that if the father is serious and expressive about his faith there is a 93% chance that the rest of his family will do the same (The Promise Keepers at Work, 1996)? Dads, the stakes are high! Our children are facing enormous pressures today and the research shows that no one can build counter-pressure into them like you can. They need to acquire a motivating belief system in their adolescence and have a sense of purpose in life or they will drift into self absorption as adults (The Development of Purpose During Adolescence, Stanford 2003). Formed.org gives you an incredible opportunity, especially using YDISCIPLE studies, to watch compelling teaching and use the leader’s guides for meaningful conversations with your teenager. They learn best when you make the time for them, listen to them, and share your heart with them. Don’t underestimate your powerful influence nor abdicate this most important responsibility!

AQUINAS INSTITUTE

Angels and Demons: Instructor: Fr. Clinton Sensat, STL. This course is a rigorous study of Catholic angelology and demonology. Lectures will be based on the source materials of philosophy, the Bible, the Fathers, and the greater Scholastics. The purpose of this course is to grapple with nature and the activity of spiritual beings as far as possible based on the solid information available. A secondary purpose is to clear away the superstitions, silly notions, and dangerous practices that often plague any discussion of angels and demons. Some of the topics discussed will be the constitution of angelic spirits, angelic intellect and will, the angelic hierarchies, angelic and demonic activity, and the fall of the demons. Classes will be held on Wednesdays from 6:00 to 8:45 p.m. beginning August 23\textsuperscript{rd} at John Paul the Great Academy.

Spiritual Theology: Instructor: Fr. Michael Champagne, CJC, STD. This course provides an in-depth introduction to Spiritual Theology, which can also be termed the Theology of the Interior Life or the Theology of Christian Perfection. The nature of Christian holiness will be treated especially as it involves the integral operation of the theological virtues, the moral virtues, and gifts of the Holy Spirit. Spiritual Theology by Jordan Aumann, OP, will provide the principal material for the course. Classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:00 to 8:15 p.m. at John Paul the Great Academy.
